QUINTESSENTIALLY WEDDINGS
BRINGS THE FINEST WEDDING
ARTISANS TOGETHER

Quintessentially Weddings, the world's most exclusive wedding planning service, and has announced the return of its highly successful Atelier, to be staged in London on 29 & 30 March 2014. The showcase brings the finest wedding artisans together to host the ultimate bridal experience.

The strictly invitation-only Atelier will be held at an exclusive venue in central London, which will be turned into a luxurious wedding wonderland for the two days. Delving into the unrivalled couture black book Quintessentially Weddings is renowned for, the Atelier will offer brides exclusive 'behind the scenes' access to the finest designers, florists, jewellers, gastronomers and craftsmen. Guests will have a rare chance to attend master classes, receive expert advice and gain one-to-one access with the who's who of the luxury wedding industry.

Agent Provocateur will also be taking over a private suite at the townhouse to curate a bespoke boudoir and introduce its new bridal collection, while Christian Louboutin will reveal their bespoke special order service, which allows brides to create their perfect shoes for their special day, choosing from an incredible selection of fabrics, colours and styles. Browns Bride and couturier Phillipa Lepley will also feature at the Atelier, to present their latest stunning creations.
